

IN A WORLD FULL OF FAKE NEWS...

Are you tired of diets that just don't work?
Or seeing people all over the internet
promoting the next fad diet?

The health and nutrition market is a confusing place of what we should and shouldn't put into our bodies. Generic diets are created for us without any knowledge of our own internal workings. With MyCore you will finally be given the TRUTH of what works for you.

You came here today because you care about your well-being so we want to offer you the opportunity to have a future to really believe in. MyCore provides you with the ability to find out what are the best (and worst) foods and micronutrients for you based on your genetic makeup.

Discover now what is best for you and start your personal nutritional journey today.
